CHOREOGRAPHER'S STATEMENT:

Emily has extensive background in both Modern and Musical Theatre choreography. Her priorities as a choreographer are creating movement that effectively moves a story forward, evokes desired emotions from audiences, offers the right level of achievable challenge for her dancers, and is visually interesting and pleasing to an audience. Emily specializes in creating movement with varying qualities and timings that match the emotions and characters of the scene. She works closely with her music and her dancers to create effective and visually compelling choreography. As a licensed dance teacher, Emily communicates with others very successfully, and teaches in very efficient and effective ways, whether her students are beginners or advanced movers. Emily's attention to detail sets her apart from others and her pieces always come out clean and specific in their qualities of movement.
